

While My Guitar Gently Weeps

George Harrison – capo 5 – Banjo – Eric????

Intro George – Dm      Dm    G      Bb
All                    - Dm      C      G      A

    Dm            Dm            G                    Bb
I look at you all; see the love, there that's sleeping

Dm            C      G      A

While my guitar gently weeps

    Dm            Dm            G                    Bb

I look at the floor, and I see, it needs sweeping

Dm            C      G      A

Still my guitar gently weeps

---

D            F#m    Bm            F#m    Em                    A

I don't know why, nobody told you – How to unfold your love

D            F#m    Bm                    F#m    Em                    A

I don't know how someone controlled you – They bought and sold you

    Dm            Dm            G                    Bb

I look at the world, and I notice its turning

Dm            C      G      A

While my guitar gently weeps

    Dm            Dm                    G                    Bb

With every mistake, we must surely be learning

Dm            C      G      A

Still my guitar gently weeps

---

D            F#m    Bm            F#m    Em                    A

I don't know how, you were diverted – You were inverted too

D            F#m    Bm                    F#m    Em                    A

I don't know how, you were inverted – No one alerted you

Dm                    Dm                    G                    Bb
I look from the wings; at the play, you are staging
Dm                    C                    G                    A
While my guitar gently weeps
Dm                    Dm                    G                    Bb
'Cause I'm sitting here, doing nothing but aging
Dm                    C                    G                    A
Still my guitar gently weeps

---

D                    F#m                    Bm                    F#m                    Em                    A
I don't know why, nobody told you – How to unfold your love
D                    F#m                    Bm                    F#m                    Em                    A
I don't know how someone controlled you – They bought and sold you
